RULES

Individual Contestants must submit all Hog Tails at the Awards Banquet. There will be no entry fee collected for this Contest. Entry requirements are that all harvested hogs shall be on property or properties that are registered in the Central Dewitt County Wildlife Management Association. This Contest is open to any member, their immediate family or a participant who has entered into the Buck Contest for the Texas Parks and Wildlife established Whitetail Deer Season for that corresponding year. This Contest will run from the Sunday following the CDCMA Awards Banquet typically held each February to the Friday prior to the next Awards Banquet (please check your newsletters for dates of CDCWMA Awards Banquets as scheduled by the Board of Directors). There is no limit to the number of Hog Tails which can be entered, Prizes will be awarded per level of tails entered for the Four Levels listed above (Contestant must be present to win – no exceptions). A random drawing will determine the winner of the Case Prize for each Level of Entries. Hogs must be taken by Firearm or Archery. Verify with your Land Owner that your entries are taken from CDCWMA registered properties.
